

A Journey of Blessings

A Publication of Birthright Humble

We can easily miss the gift of what's right in front of us, especially beauty that's part of our everyday lives; sunsets, sunrises, smiles. We can also easily miss the beautiful ways God works in and around us daily; true friends, loving family. After many years of having an office that consisted of 3 rooms with donated unmatched furniture, we were able to move into a larger space and looked more professional but welcoming. It was almost lost by one inch of flood water from Imelda. BUT GOD. The Friday after Imelda struck on Thursday I walked into a mess. I was meeting one of the Board members to receive a donation. He came in and made one call. This call brought several men that same day that pulled up the wet carpet. Another Board member called the landlord (God bless both men) and the landlord got a restoration team out to the entire shopping center. By the end of Friday and the entire weekend some walls were partially removed and air dried. By the end of the first week the walls were restored. The next week the walls were painted. During all this, we remained open for our clients. The third week we had to close the office for the floors to be glued down. We reopened with a team of about twenty individuals that came to unload the PODS and reset the office. We are very thankful to each individual that helped and their amazing attitudes toward getting us back up and running. We thank God that the clients understood and on our first Monday back the girls returned. See photos of this on page 2.

5 Amazing Things Unborn Babies Can Do in the Womb

- (1) Learn! The womb is a sensory playground and babies respond
- (2) React with Gestures! Respond to music by blinking or moving to the beat
- (3) Remember! Distinguish their mother's voice from others
- (4) Dream! Show signs of deep sleep with movement
- (5) Exist as Human Beings! The moment the sperm fertilized the egg, a new human person came into existence!

All this plus a beating heart at 21 days, detectable brain waves at 42 days, suck their thumb and yawn, have taste buds and their own fingerprints.

From our Files

(1) A couple with a friend came in for a test. As soon as the positive result was given the man shouted, "I told you I didn't want children." We were unable to communicate with the couple as this man just wouldn't listen. The friend later came in alone and shared that she has been encouraging the woman to move back in with her ill mother and that her mother would love to see her grandchild. We tried to keep in touch with her and at times he would answer the phone or she would but he would be sitting right beside her. Time has passed with no word. It was time for the baby to be born so we tried one more time and she answered! She said she is still waiting on the birth but she would be in for the free basket of baby items.

(2) A client came in with her mother. She is a waitress at a pretty nice restaurant. She needed a test. It was positive. At first it was ok but when we stated an estimated amount of weeks she was pregnant, then she changed. She had to be this other length because it had to be this other guy. The time we gave her meant it was someone she no longer is with and if it was him, she needed to ask him what he wanted her to do. After she left the office, she made her mother drive her to a clinic so she could set up an appointment. The appointment was made for 7 days later. We contacted her during those 7 days and she was willing to talk. Then she quit answering the phone. The day of the appointment she did answer and said she decided to have the baby.
